

THE REFINERY X CASKELLS WHISKY TASTING & WORKSHOP WITH A TWIST

Whisky is a complex spirit with many flavours and depths that could be explored through nosing and tasting – now is your opportunity to learn a trick or two from a true whisky specialist.

This December, we've invited John Rhodes, a whisky retailer specialised in importing Independently Bottled (I.B.) whiskies and the founder of "Caskells Whisky & Fine Spirits", to offer our Members a glimpse into the fantastic world of single cask whiskies.

Take part in this informative and fun workshop to sharpen your palate, awaken your whisky sense and discover how flavour profiles are influenced by different cask types.
