

THE REFINERY DIALOGUES NEGOTIATING WITH SHADOWS SIMULATING A REAL-WORLD RANSOMWARE INCIDENT

We are delighted to invite you to an exclusive edition of The Refinery Dialogues featuring two cyber security specialists from S RM, Lester Lim, Head of Cyber and Kyle Schwaeble, Head of Incident Response, delivered in a dynamic crisis exercise format that simulates real world ransomware negotiations.

Based on a real world ransomware incident involving a known threat actor, this interactive session places participants under pressure in a simulated negotiation scenario. Drawing on the latest threat intelligence, the exercise explores when and whether to pay, as well as the tactical judgement behind developing and responding to offers and counter offers.

Participants will actively influence the direction and outcome of the scenario through live voting, offering a rare, practical perspective on ransomware decision making at critical moments.

Reserve your seat now! Spaces are limited.

About the Speaker

Lester Lim, Head of Cyber, APAC, S-RM

Lester leads S-RM's cyber practice for APAC, responding to cyber-attacks and assisting clients in improving their resilience. He also acts as the primary liaison with the cyber insurance ecosystem across Asia, with a particular focus on insurance companies and brokers, as well as law firms that act as incident managers for which S-RM is a trusted partner.

Kyle Schwaeble, Head of Incident Response, APAC, S-RM

Kyle Schwaeble is Head of Incident Response based in Hong Kong. He leads S-RM's incident response practice across the Asia-Pacific region. Kyle specialises in incident response management, with particular expertise in both the secure restoration and recovery from cyber incidents such as ransomware attacks and business email compromises, as well as ransomware extortion negotiations.
