

THE REFINERY DIALOGUES AVIATION LEADERSHIP WITH CAPTAIN JANET LEUNG

We are delighted to invite you to an exclusive edition of The Refinery Dialogues featuring Captain Janet Leung, Cathay Pacific.

In this engaging session, Captain Janet Leung takes us beyond the flight deck to explore how precision, communication, and composure define aviation excellence. With thirteen years in the skies, she shares an insider's view of how modern pilots navigate complexity — from managing advanced aircraft systems to making sound decisions under pressure. Drawing from her experience flying the Airbus, and now commanding the A321Neo, Janet offers a rare look into what it means to lead in a calm, collaborative and empowering tone. As a member of the Flying Training Development Team in Cathay Pacific, she also reveals how training and continuous learning shape the next generation of aviators.

In this Refinery Dialogue, you will gain insights into:

- The mindset required to lead confidently through uncertainty
- How teamwork and preparation underpin safety and operational success
- Practical ways to balance demanding professional roles with personal growth

Delivered in a warm, conversational style, this Dialogue invites honest discussion about leadership, resilience, and lifelong learning. As Captain Leung reflects, "Flying teaches you discipline, but it's also a reminder that leadership is about people —in the flight deck and beyond."
