

THE REFINERY X SUGAR COCKTAIL PAIRING DINNER

The Refinery is proud to present a singular evening of collaboration, bringing together two exceptional craftsmen, Jacky Chan of The Refinery and Alvin Ching of Sugar, EAST Hong Kong.

For one night only, this four hands experience will explore the art of modern mixology, where precision, creativity, and storytelling meet in every glass. Rooted in refined technique and driven by innovation, the evening reflects a shared philosophy; that true craftsmanship lies in the thoughtful balance of flavour, texture, and experience.

Alvin Ching has curated three exclusive cocktails and a cocktail-inspired ice cream, each conceived to push boundaries while honouring the foundations of classic mixology. Complemented by thoughtfully designed gourmet pairings, each course unfolds as a harmonious dialogue between kitchen and bar; bold, expressive, and meticulously composed.

This is more than a dinner; it is an immersive exploration of taste, guided by two artisans whose dedication to their craft transforms the familiar into the extraordinary.
